Excessive pricing is a difficult and controversial concept, because no clear, universally recognised methodology exists for determining when a price is excessive. Our panel of experts will examine how to determine when a price is excessive in general and in the pharmaceutical sector, which differs from many other sectors. We will also examine the challenges for competition authorities assessing exploitative practices in the pharmaceutical sector and the impact of their recent decisions.

Speakers

- Svend Albaek - Deputy Chief Economist (European Commission)
- Zeynep Ayata - Assistant Professor (Koç University Law School, Istanbul, Turkey)
- Peter Davis - Senior Vice President (Cornerstone Research)
- Ronit Kreisberger - Barrister (Monckton Chambers)
- Robert O'Donoghue QC - Barrister (Brick Court Chambers)

Event convened by Dr Liza Lovdahl Gormsen, Competition Law Forum Director, British Institute of International and Comparative Law.

This event is hosted under the Chatham House Rule

Becoming a member of the Competition Law Forum (CLF)

The CLF is a centre of excellence for European competition and antitrust policy and law at BIICL. It provides a forum in which the practical application of competition policy is considered by lawyers, economists, senior business managers, public servants, public affairs professionals, consumer bodies and other specialist practitioners. The Forum identifies areas requiring debate and analysis, and provides the required forum and experts, thereby contributing to policy initiatives.

To enquire about becoming a member of the Forum, please contact Dr Liza Lovdahl Gormsen, CLF Director at l.lovdahlgormsen@biicl.org
