

UNITED KINGDOM ASSOCIATION FOR EUROPEAN LAW

EU Law in the UK since Brexit

4 December 2023, 6pm

Matrix Chambers, Griffin Building, Gray's Inn, London WC1R 5LN

The UKAEL invites legal practitioners, academics, students and the public to a panel discussion regarding the status of EU law in the United Kingdom since the end of the transition period on 31st December 2020. The consequences of this radical change in the constitutional and legislative structure of the United Kingdom are still in flux, with a further major statutory change pending at the end of 2023.

Programme

Chair: Jessica Simor KC

Jessica is one of the leading UK silks specialising in public/regulatory, EU and human rights law. She has particular experience in environment (climate change, recycling, sustainability, labelling), energy, privacy/data protection, tax (VAT/excise), and economic regulation.

Rhodri Thompson KC: Breaking up is hard to do – a short history of EU law in the UK since 2010

Rhodri is a leading specialist silk in UK and EU competition law, regulation and public law. He is Honorary Treasurer of the UKAEL and was Chair of the Bar Council EU Law Committee from 2018-2020.

Professor Paul Craig: The Trade and Cooperation Agreement and the UK statutory position

Paul is Emeritus Professor of English Law, St John's College, Oxford and President of the UKAEL. His research interests are constitutional law, administrative law, EU law and comparative administrative law. He has given evidence to parliamentary committees on numerous occasions. From 2011-2019, he was the UK alternate member on the Venice Commission.

Jack Williams: The position from 2024: The Retained EU Law (Revocation and Reform) Act 2023

Jack is a barrister at Monckton Chambers. He edits the blog www.eurelationslaw.com. The legal directories state that he is a “particular authority” on the legal changes since Brexit and a “go-to person”.

This event is generously hosted by Matrix Chambers and is followed by a drinks reception. Fee: UKAEL members £15 (student members free), public £25, students £5. Please make your online payment as soon as possible to UKAEL, NatWest, Code 56-00-13, Account No: 36623628 to secure your place. And please leave your name as reference! Thank you.
