

The SEP Regulation: Cutting through the Noise

King's College London and Charles River Associates invite you to a conference aimed at providing clarity on the hotly debated SEP Regulation.

Wednesday, 21 February 2024 | 15:30 – 21:00 CEST

15:30 – 16:00 Networking coffee

16:00 – 16:30 Welcome address & introduction: objectives and key 'pillars' of the proposed SEP Regulation

Renato Nazzini (Professor, King's College London)
Kamil Kiljanski (Head of Unit, European Commission)

16:30 – 17:30 What are the issues in SEP licensing?

Moderator: Renato Nazzini (Professor, King's College London)

Panelists:

Benno Buehler (Vice President, Charles River Associates)
Joachim Henkel (Professor, Technical University Munich)
Ana-Mariya Madzhurova (Legal Counsel, Fairphone)
Uta Schneider (Vice President Government Affairs, Avanci)
Christopher Vajda KC (Arbitrator, Monckton Chambers, formerly Judge at Court of Justice of the EU)

17:30 – 18:30 What do the four 'pillars' of the Proposal achieve, and where is there scope for improvement?

Moderator: Aleksandra Kuznicka - Cholewa (IP Lawyer, CMS, former member of EC SEP expert group)

Panelists:

Enrico Bonadio (Reader, City, University of London)
Peter Camesasca (Founder, Camesasca)
Fabian Hoffmann (Judge, Federal Court of Justice of Germany)
Rebekka Porath (Global IP Policy Director, Intel)

18:30 – 18:45 Closing remarks

Renato Nazzini (Professor, King's College London)

18:45 – 21:00 Cocktail reception

Sofitel Brussels Europe | Paul-Henri Spaak Room

Place Jourdan 1, 1040 Brussels

There is no registration fee to attend this event. If you have any questions, please contact Elise Gillet at egillet@crai.com.

RSVP